Hind repd is invited to the entries under column 20 of the Inam Regr, an extract of which is found in the M.C's office file at the subject. The Inam land under dispute is stated therein to have been released from the temporary attachment therein repd to & restored to the Mutt. This is dated 15 Mar 1906. From the Huzur Jari Inam account of 1858 it is clear that the particular land is endowed for the worship of Sri Ramaswami Mutt at Nanjangud. It is submitted that it was open to the ambassador of the land to have contested the Inam Regr entries at the time of the Inam Settlement. & his plea that he was ignorant of the land being a Devadaya one is not tenable.

(2) It is nearly a year and half since the M.C passed his decision in the matter. It is not known why the Mutt authorities have failed to prefer an appeal in time before Govt.

(3) The records do not indicate whether the land in question is found in the list of Inams of the Mutt which was entrusted to the Management of Govt vide the Agency of the Mutt containing a repd to the estates became Managed by Govt) — If agd, the M.C. will be asked to investigate & report whether the land in question is one among others handed over to the Govt Management.

Accordingly it was contended that the present assessment of Rs.2 per acre was illegal and that the order of the

To my mind the case is quite clear. The petitioner has evidently been in occupation from before 1886 and the fact that his tenancy was not mentioned at the time of settlement does not alter the fact. He had a right in whole of the village and it could not be decided that in settling the rights over the whole village the exemption of particular [illegible] cf. There is no doubt that the Subbayadar was in occupation in the year 1904 when the present officer was unable to ascertain the true facts. The long possession itself is very much in favour of the contentions of the Subbayadar and he ought to succeed here.

The next question is one of costs. In my opinion the rule contained in para 574 (1) of the Revenue Manual is only for the benefit of the contesting Subbayadar and he ought to be [illegible]
